The New Hampshire Public Health Association (NHPHA) is pleased to announce that it has welcomed Melissa Ray to its Board of Directors for a one year term as their student representative.

Ms. Ray is a Keene State College senior majoring in Public Health and Dance. On-campus she most notably is the secretary of the Public Health Club, a wellness ambassador with the Wellness Center, a restorative justice facilitator, and an orientation leader during the summer.

Ms. Ray is eager to join the NHPHA board and gain more experience in the field of public health. In the future, she plans to participate in an Americorps VISTA service program before attending an MPH program.

About NHPHA

NHPHA is a statewide membership organization composed of professionals and others who have an interest in public health. For over 25 years, it has brought together members who share a common goal of making sure that New Hampshire citizens live, learn, work, and play in safe and healthy environments. For more information, visit nhpha.org or call 603-228-2983.
